“AmCham featured Tanya facilitating a True Colours workshop in a recent business networking event we ran in Sydney. It was fantastic! Tanya is a fun and engaging speaker and really connected with our audience of nearly 100 attendees which ranged from sales professionals and consultants to CEOs from a variety of industries. The True Colours content that Tanya covered really took the networking to a new level. People were really connecting with each other and the feeling in the room was electric. When the event closed, groups of people who had only just met at the event went out for drinks afterward to carry on their conversations. Many of the attendees who ran companies mentioned having Tanya doing a True Colours session for their teams. I'm a big fan of True Colours for creating more productive teams and highly recommend Tanya!” Angus Stewart, General Manager, Sydney, American Chamber of Commerce

“Tanya presents with genuine passion and extensive knowledge. Often with really energetic presenters you find that while you get swept up in their energy and carried through the experience it doesn't actually translate to learning. Tanya has a style that engages you and makes you choose to take the journey with her. The motivation to participate comes from within which leads to a stronger sense of connection with the outcomes. I find Tanya to be extremely friendly and professional in all her interactions. Her infectious laugh (which she does often) lights up the room and only adds to positive persona. I would recommend Tanya to anyone looking for a dynamic, engaging and genuine facilitator or trainer.” Stephen Robinson, Sydney, Tower Australia
